BIG LOAN TO BE LESS THAN
$250,000,000

Will be Used for Refunding of $169,000,000 in Victory Bonds

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—The forthcoming Dominion government loan will be "substantially less than $250,000,000," according to a high official of the Bank of Canada yesterday. It will be "essentially a refunding loan and a modest financing of the war," said the man in the "word," the official added.

The date and rate of the new loan were not yet fixed, but plans have gone up in a most satisfactory manner and the official sources confirm the public will take the fullest possible advantage of the loan to convert other maturing bonds into long-term securities at a slight discount.

The loan, to be used for the purpose of refunding the $169,000,000 in Victory Bonds maturing on November 1, and a bank loan of some $25,000,000, will be available in October.

The total loan will be only slightly in excess of these requirements.

Information not yet made available to the public depends upon the market that will be at the end of this month.

FORD LIKELY TO JOIN N.R.A CODE

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—There were strong indications yesterday the Ford Motor Co. within a fortnight will place its employees on a 32-hour work week, the minimum working day within the work week provision of the NRA automobile code with effect from Oct. 1.

Comment in automotive circles generally was that the company is ready to go along with the NRA's demand that employees will work 64 hours every two weeks, averaging 32 hours per week. The proposed code provides for a 32-hour work week, and a minimum pay of $3.50 lowest paid employees.

Catholic Church, Convent Become Blazing Furnace at Midnight—Five Hundred Occupants Safely Removed—Only One Injured.

By W. H. WARD

Calgary Press-Advertiser

VALLEYFIELD, Que., Sept. 22.—Fire that raged throughout the night in Roman Catholic property here, doing property damage of $1,600,000, causing serious injuries to firemen and lesser injuries to several others, was extinguished today.

A survey of the damage, one of the largest suffered by the Catholic church in Canada, showed the following:

The convent and Mary grotto and two upper floors of the adjoining normal school ruined. $1,000,000. The school completely destroyed. $600,000.

Firemen Edmonton, while attempting to pull the fire from the top of the convent and several others less seriously hurt.

One hundred and four pupils forced to flee from the convent in the night and seek refuge in homes in the surrounding area.

The sacred host was saved but valuable paintings and priceless relics were lost. Church ornaments alone were valued at $100,000.

The Bishop's palace across the street was also damaged.

Delisle, a volunteer, swept from the roof of the convent by a fire hose, fell through the floor four stories to the street. His fall was broken, however, and at hospital.

It Pays to Study Values In Choosing Clothes

Particularly is this true now that we are soon to meet higher prices!

During the years of depression more clothes than ever have been sold, though so often resulted through the purchase of cheap clothes. In the winter, when we wear the gaudy colors that the public has actually plunged lower than the prices. More cheapness in men's clothes where quality is abundant, has led to the slogan "boomerang," an added expense instead of the expected economy.

Reliable materials, dependable tailoring as combined in Real Tailored Clothes are still the preference of good people. By comparison the over-value of the neophyte's clothing is often evident.

Before you decide on your new Fall suit and Winter Overcoat make some investigation.

The advantage of Real Tailored Clothes will show up more favorably than you may realize.

Visit the La Fleche Tailor Shop and see the New Fall Winter display, no advance in price. Tailored for you at—

YEAR IN JAIL FOR AMERICAN EXTORTIONIST

Frank Albert Gilbert, German-American from St. Louis, was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment at the Port Saakachewian jail by Magistrate George B. McLeod. In only 10 days he had been indicted, he had been convicted of demanding money with threats, and made seven demands, all of which and Clyde Hook, prominent city business man.

Gilbert, it was disclosed, had a long criminal record in the U. S., where convictions on an extortion charge were frequent.

In passing sentence Magistrate McLeod said:

"I suppose in this case before me I was under the impression that it was much more serious than it really was. However, it is no matter to be taken lightly. It is a very serious offense and I hope to see him serve his 10 years. Had the case continued to assume the very serious aspect it finds itself in, he would have been condemned to pass a long prison sentence."

Gilbert's left hand was a gun fighter seven years ago in a gun fight with St. Louis Charles Becker held in court until he was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary.

Five or more transients were held in custody during the investigation. One was released after being searched. Police declared they had no clue as to the extortionist's identity.

Van Dusen, who contradicted himself during his testimony, even to the extent of replying "yes" and "no" to questions.

An exhaustive search of the city, the surrounding area and the entire province was conducted by the Mounties. The search force was doubled Saturday night and Sunday morning, and included a couple of navy barges.

Fifty or more transients were held in custody during the preliminary hearing. Springing a second surprise, Gilbert returned to the courtroom Saturday afternoon.

Van Dusen, who had known of the case with Detective Robert Sutherland took the stand, and, in a brief speech, exposed the case.

The extortion letters were mailed by Gilbert the night of September 12 and addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs' business offices the following morning. The two letters, done in black ink, with the words "in block letters, the printing being done with a stick" and "written on a piece of graph paper of school. Lovett's letter read:

"Dear Sir: We want $1,000 or your life and property will not be worth a nickel. If you do not come to me and give an ad. in the Journal for the Bulletin Sept. 16—then if you decide to notify the police we will know where and of consequences. This is no开玩笑事 serious business. We mean to get you to prepare for a 200 mile trip next week."

The letter Hook received was identical in every detail except it differed only in the words to be inserted in the newspaper advertisement. The letter was sent to the classified section. Hook was ordered to advertise "a six room house in a truck in Red Deer" from the Ottawa headquarters.

Judge Always Ready To Aid Bar Members

Mr. Justice Liles is always ready to help members of the Alberta Bar.

While sitting in Supreme Court chamber presiding at the slander trial against J. J. Maher, former Klan Wizard, there came to his Lordship's side the strident sermon of Frank H. Lovett, the high-spirited lawyer who had been along and crash of two cars coming together, and there a dead outside the court house.

The two intended victims received the letters the morning of Wednesday, Sept. 13, and immediately communicated with police the following day. Lovett was instructed to file a complaint for the slanders in the letter and place the ad. in the newspaper.

On Saturday, Sept. 15, Gilbert was arrested at his home in Red Deer and when searched, a second letter was found on his person, which was printed in block form, but by hand rather than with the wooden type.

"Dear Sir: Have seen your ad. To the Calgary Star Wednesday to Red Deer. I am told of course about midnight tonight. Have money in small bills, we wrap them in red paper and put them in a platform in Red Deer to look along and crash for two lights each time. You can't get out and throw them money on tracks. Again this is no joke. Will never again be seen."

LEIPZIG, Germany, Sept. 22.—The charge against five men of setting fire to the Reichstag building last February developed last night into a wider charge of attempting through continued action, undertaken partly to cover up the arson, to overthrow the German government.

The five accused, the indictment stated, were the opening of the trial before the supreme court, was put out, but the atmosphere was favorable for an overthrow of the government.

The defense, however, was moved to second importance in the reading of the indictment, which pointed to the attempt to overthrow the constitution.

LOWER RAIL FARES NOW AGREED UPON

Eastern Round Trip Rates Will Get Material Reduction

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The New York Herald Tribune said yesterday that presidents of eastern heads agreed that the railroads would raise senior rate to two cents a mile for round-trip and three cents a mile for one-way tickets, together with elimination of surcharges.

Concerning recent reports that such action was imminent in the offing, it was said in Montreal railway circles that any cut in United States fares likely would be followed by a decrease in rates on Canada's transcontinental lines.

Conversations regarding fare reductions were held recently between the heads of eastern railroads and the heads of Canadian and United States rail officials.

An agreement was reached to keep the rates applicable in all eastern United States carrier territories, as far as possible, in line with the general meeting of representatives of all railroads, but the major reduction will be effected.

The action was said to mark the start of the new New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads to demands from the railroads that they will be able to draw to the railroads using their air and land lines.

The present basic rate is 3.6 cents per mile.

Some 20 experimental rate lowering in the United States south and west is believed to have been the primary factor in the general reduction by eastern lines.

Nothing To Tax

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 22.—Casting about for ways to tax, city council considered levies on the theatre tickets and cigarettes but says no to both. After long discussion, it advised that the only tax the city could afford would be on mining products, of which there are none operating.

Weather Conditions so Discouraging Jim and Amy Will Only Wait Week or 10 Days Longer For Good Auspices.

TORONTO, Sept. 22.—If weather conditions across the Atlantic do not prove satisfactory within the next week or 10 days, Captain Mollison will probably abandon his hope to use a Canadian hopper ship to bring back across to break the world's long-distance non-stop flight record.

For the moment, however, information given to a joint service club gathering yesterday by Mrs. Amy Johnson, wife of Captain Mollison, is now testing out a new plane which with the help of a large catapult will take off from Wasaga beach, north of here, within the next few days.

In the event he will not be able to start before next week, it is said, he and his transatlantic crew, who have already reached the coast of the Empire and Canadian clubs.

Canada is far behind most countries in the way of flight facilities, in fact in almost every way. Civilization follows transport and where we are we be if we were all riding around on donkeys?

DISCUSS NEW MILK GRADING SYSTEM HERE

Raw and Pasteurized Milk to be Placed in Separate Divisions

By Dr. R. B. Jenkins, medical director of health, for a new milk grading system, which it is proposed should milk would be graded separately, was given lengthy consideration yesterday. On the motion of Ald. Rice Sheppard, this item was referred to the committee, when representatives of the raw milk dealers will examine it, a physician, and it was stated that some examination was reasonable.

Jenkins explained that the new system provided for various grades of both pasteurized and raw milk.

Grade A raw milk would be sold to Grade A raw, and so on down through the scale.

It was further pointed out by Jenkins that raw milk dealers would be given a certificate for their employees before their milk could be sold as Grade A.

Grade A raw milk, it was stated after employees have been examined by a physician, and it was stated that some examination was reasonable.

MILK CLOSELY INSPECTED

The committee informed that Easton's milk supply was closely inspected in order to guard against the American views as expressed by Mr. Davis that any disarmament is not practical without a demonstration of peacefulness as the British authorities, too, support the American viewpoint on disarmament.

French plans have been

France's proposals call for:

1—Doubling Germany's army from 200,000 men to 400,000 and increasing small arms proportionately.

2—Abolishing professional armies and semi-military groups.

3—A strict control scheme.

4—Limiting arms to prevent levies.

5—Actual creation of heavy guns and tanks at the end of their use.

Below is given another forecast of what Jim and Amy will do with their contributions on problems of the day have been a welcome feature for some time past. The ideas expressed are Mrs. Elliott's.

ONE-WAY GLASS

This is no place to analyze the question of whether a lady dresses to attract to conceal. Thousands of women are struggling, and a satisfactory solution is not in sight. The stand-point, however, the one-way glass will add power and freedom to the wearer.

A passenger in a taxicab change from a business suit to a morning coat is liable to be exposed to riled jokers when he is not at a crossing. Sitting at a window, holding hands and the like, with a brace of braces, will no longer be a secret to the neighbors that an engage- ment is in progress.

Facilities for sunbathing have been extended in many places, the sunbed need only take up a corner of the room, the care of course to keep on the book-side of the glass. Should the sunlight be peering through

DISARMAMENT TALKS TO BE RESUMED SOON

Peace of Europe May be at Stake in Conversations

TORONTO, Sept. 22.—A complete agreement among Great Britain, France and Italy on disarmament and arms control was announced yesterday in Paris, but the question of penalties still was unfinished.

Norman H. Davis, American大使, supported by the French to give general support to the plan, thus making it possible a peace pact from the Geneva arms conference.

Meeting of Mr. Davis, foreign minister Joseph Paul-Boncour of France, and Sir John Simon of Great Britain, was arranged for this evening.

Disarmament discussions also were discussed at a luncheon by the British Ambassador to Geneva, the Hon. Sir Edward Tyrrell, British ambassador. Among the guests were Sir John Simon, president of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs, and Sir Alexander Eden, Canadian ambassador.

LABOR PARLEY RACES THROUGH BUSY AGENDA

McAdoo Is Off For Russia—Unofficially!

Admitting that "there is nothing to prevent my reporting to the President the result of my observations," Senator William G. McAdoo is shown as he sailed from New York for Russia with his daughter, Ellen. Known as an advocate of United States recognition of the Soviet, he denied, however, that his trip was being made in any official capacity.

Various Endorsements, Re-solutions, Indicate Trend of Congress Opinion

WINNIPEG, Sept. 22.—Opposed endorsement of the unemployment recovery act in the United States, coupled with recommendations for similar action by the Canadian government; abolition of government regulation of agriculture; the Labor's only chance of getting what it wanted was to put men in parliament; and the results of yesterday's session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada in convention.

For a brief time the convention listened to General March, Niagara Falls, tell of conditions in the 20-cent-a-day relief government camps were operated, and the next point was reached at which Mr. March scheduled to continue his address today.

The relief camp discussion adjourned until today, is expected to be completed early in the day. The relief committee had lumped eight separate measures into one, dealing with all parts of the convention hall room.

RESOLUTION ON "Camps"

The resolution on camps from the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council, and a resolution from the various provinces of Canada "alleging a right of self-government for men." The administration of the camps is under the department of national resources, and costs $10 per month in addition to feed, clothing and camp accommodation. The resolution was adopted.

The work performed does not appear to be restricted to projects for the national benefit but in some instances at least is of considerable benefit to the individual.

"Neither do the projects appear to be restricted to that which would promote public improvements. Unemployed single men, facing economic difficulties, are forced to accept these degrading conditions of labor, while on every side there are men who have been compelled to operate under long hours, which if properly divided would provide more time for leisure, for the very men that are being forced into these camps."

The resolution further asked to declare itself as being strongly of the opinion that instead of federal government control of relief camps perform work for the benefit of private industries, that industry should be relieved again by legislation to shorten the hours of labor. Unemployed could then be employed more easily.

NOT A REACTIONARY

The convention was enlivened by a sharp clash between James Simpson, a reactionary, and W. J. Tees, of Winnipeg. The latter had suggested workers of the west consider M. Simpson as a "reactionary" and "Jimmy" heartily denied the allegation. "They can never destroy us," he said. "They can never defeat us." That was the spirit in which James Simpson will live on forever as a friend of labor," said the Torontonian.

He referred to his services as a prominent Labor leader for years as a champion of the unemployed workers of Toronto kept up supporting me as they have done in the past," he said. "I am a reactionary," Toronto. Later Mr. Tees explained that the convention he had invited to speak against M. Simpson's attitude toward Labor and the working class.

The congress reiterated its policy on unemployment during the day's session, and voted to take action by provision of work to eliminate unemployment. Coupled with the declaration of the necessities of life for the electorate and measures to cope with future unemployment in a definite manner and to prevent its recurrence to the greatest possible extent.

JAPAN ROCKED BY EARTHQUAKE

KANAZAWA, Japan, Sept. 22.—Heavy destruction in Northern Honshu by an earthquake which shook Western Japan. The tremors continued throughout the night.

Only one death and two serious injuries were reported, all at Takashima, a small town. The telegraph lines were ruptured and only meager reports were received here.

FOR THE LOVE OF EVE

—By LUCY WALLING

BEGIN HERE TODAY

EVE, Bayless, pretty assistant manager of Bixby's department store, married to Eddie Bader, a contractor, has been given a week's leave to take charge of a construction job at a lake house. She will be gone at least a year to complete her Eve's dream of a home for her work and Eddie with him.

Allen, Eddie's brother, likes Eve and is constantly causing trouble at the office. She is responsible for several incidents which Eddie blames. Allen is friendless, though, and Eve's attention to him has gone to Pine Forest and we are making homes for their husbands. Eve named Pine Forest and Eddie's wife remained in Lake Charles.

Unknown to Dick, Eve has been receiving money from her mother and father, and has been saving her savings and $400. Dick left on the train to come to Pine Forest.

When the employer asked to declare himself as being strongly of the opinion that instead of federal government control of relief camps perform work for the benefit of private industries, that industry should be relieved again by legislation to shorten the hours of labor. Unemployed could then be employed more easily.

CHAPTER XI

B. J. Eve did not give up her job at the store, but she did send her letter to Eddie. She had written to Dick.

"I'll have to keep away from Mrs. Bader," he said. "She is a wonder, but she is also gossipy and I don't like her any other way. She is always putting me in a sentimental mood. After all, there's no place for me in this office."

"Dick, I know that this is the week that Dick should give up his."

He would be foolish, she assured him, to turn over the comforts he enjoyed in Lake City for the privations under which she was sure Dick would be forced to live.

In mid-December he wrote to her. "When it snows up here it seems like winter, and I was worried about you. We had three drifts for several weeks now and there is no knowing how long it will last. We have had some difficulty getting over the hills to the job market, but we are beginning to get along again. I hope you're not too tired to work now. Dick, I hope you're not tired to sleep now."

Dick did not seem to like the happiness of life in the woods. Instead he did not even consider such primitive luxuries as a warm bed or a new sweater. He had to wait for Dick to miss her and she failed to read between the lines. Though she was always condescending, with all my love—Dick. Eve wanted her proof that that was not a perfect devotion.

She was disappointed that he made no reference to the coming Christmas. "I'm afraid you'll be here for Christmas," she said.

"I'm afraid you'll be here for Christmas," she said. "Dick hastened to defend Eve. "I was away from Pine Forest and didn't have time for a day off."

Mrs. Brooks expressed the sentiment to her husband, Charlie, that Dick was a good boy. The Bader boys had been ringed incessantly for many months by the police.

Sister hurried over who her father might be and opened the door to find Dick. She was surprised to see him with a look on his face. He all but ignored her. Of course, she was his mother.

"Oh, I'm so sorry," Mrs. Brooks hastened to explain. "Dick is here to see his mother."

"I must have missed her letter," Dick hastened to defend Eve. "I was away from Pine Forest and didn't have time for a day off."

Mrs. Brooks had a key to the apartment which she gave Dick. After he had gone she shook her head mournfully. "I wish he'd come back to Pine Forest," she said. "That was the way for Christmas and then find nobody at home. I'll ask him to dinner."

Dick found his mother at the table to Dorothy McElhinney at the dinner table. If he missed the company of his mother he was missing much from lack of solicitude.

Miss McElhinney gave him an understanding smile and they had a sprightly conversation and he taught her to laugh frequently. When the dinner was over, Dick and Dorothy dined in the pleasant living room of Mrs. Brooks' suite. Later when Mrs. Brooks' son, Tom, came home he was becoming restless she suggested a walk and directed his footsteps toward the theatre district.

"Let's go inside," Dick suggested as he followed her. "I'm not on the job now, but I've worked so long. I'd like to look up some of my old friends."

Dick placed Miss McElhinney in a seat and then left her while he went to the office. He then went west backstage.

Two University
Graduates Are Wed In Camrose

Kathleen Burgess Becomes Bride of Dr. Keith
MacLean

To their many friends in university and social circles of Edmonton who know them best, Miss Burgess and Dr. Keith MacLean, their wedding which took place in the United Church at Camrose on Wednesday morning, is of deep interest. Both were well known in social sport and educational circles. Kathleen is a graduate of Avis and the bride being graduate in Arts and Dr. MacLean in Medicine. Mrs. MacLean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose, and Dr. MacLean of Coleman, Alberta. The bride's mother, Mrs. MacLean, and her father Rev. Dr. S. Kerr read the marriage ritual.

Autumn coloring made an especially attractive setting for the ceremony. The chancel was banked high with autumn leaves and framed by a border of red soil and asters. In the rich shade of cedars red, the bride was very happy in her gown which was full and flared on fr. lines. Her turban was in matching shade and she carried an armful of deep cream roses.

Miss Jean Rushton was bridesmaid and Misses Mary and Irene, with a brown hat and accessories, and she carried a shower bouquet of primroses.

The bride's parents attended the bridegroom, and the ushers were Mr. Alex Burns and Mr. G. Kerr of Newell, Calgar.

During the signing of the register Mr. J. W. E. McLean sang "Promised Land" and Rev. Dr. G. Woodham.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Burgess received with Dr. and Mrs. MacLean were a gift of a white lace hat and accessories in dark tone and silver fox scarf. Mrs. MacLean received a gift of a white lace black georgette with touches of cream lace.

Quantities of autumn leaves and late summer flowers were arranged throughout the room.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. MacLean left on a motor trip to the mountains and upon their return will reside in Camrose.

There were many out-of-town guests, amongst whom were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. MacLean, Mr. and Mrs. Sell, His Honour Judge Leslie of Wetaskiwin; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. and Dr. K. F. Ede of Edmonton; Mr. George Kerr and Mr. Garnet Kerr of Camrose; Mr. and Mrs. G. Stewart and Miss Isobel Stewart of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. John Wynn, Mr. and Mrs. Inishall and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Constantine of Drumheller.

It's Economical To Plan Your Menus In Advance

By SISTER MARY

Most families return to their normal routine with the opening of school and vacations and visits place to work days. Menus must be planned that will be nourishing and satisfying for the demands of work and may be play and guests.

All through September and October it is possible to have fresh fruits and vegetables at their best place in menus. They are such important factors in keeping both children and adults in healthy health that they are almost indispensable in the daily diet. Canine vegetables are not available, but vegetables, canned or fresh, must be included in the menu. Fruits are also important. However, both fruits and vegetables are at the height of their season and consequently inexpensive and abundant in variety.

MENUS SHOULD BE SIMPLE

Menus planned especially for the new school year should be simple in type, but the addition of one or two courses to a simple, well-balanced meal will make a satisfactory informal dinner. A soup, either home-made, or a sandwich, will do wonders to planned meal. If these materials are not at hand, it's amazing what can be done with homemade relishes or conserves, garnishes or hot baking powder biscuits which can be decided by a day menu.

A week's menu planned in advance is a great time-saver and economy. Money, time and labor all are saved. The tendency toward extravagance and the frantic haste when it is nearly meal time and nothing is planned, done in a haphazard manner, if anything, it also enables one to double up on cooking processes. Enough planning can be done for the immediate meal and a potato salad or creamed potatoes for the following one.

A few plain, simple, hearty croquettes are planned to take care of the left-overs from a roast. Bread pudding, bread crumb pancakes

You can make a little go further than you think. If you serve six people, if you add three crumbled crackers and two tablespoons of cheese to your omelet. Make scrambled eggs so further by adding crumbled bacon to them to vegetable and meat loaf, too.

What's What

Question—We are several couples living on a farm in the Gulf of Mexico coast and I would like to know if I should offer to pay my own expenses when we go to town. He has asked me to go? Also please advise me as to what kind of a dress I should wear for the trip. I earn my own living and cannot afford expensive things.

Answer—It is to be hoped that these several couples have arranged among themselves to share expenses. If you accept the invitation and the party is not on a "Dutch" basis, then you should pay your own expenses. If the party is on a "Dutch" basis, then you should not attempt to treat the contributions. You should consult a competent eye specialist or physician about it as soon as possible. It is the physician's prerogative to be permitted the unqualified treatment of an amateur.

NAVAL SHAM BATTLE TODAY OFF SCOTLAND

Formidable Armada to Bomb Elie on Fifth of Orth

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Naval defense exercises by the Home fleet open today in the Firth of Forth on a scale that has aroused great interest throughout the service.

Under the command of Admiral Sir W. D. Boyle of the flagship Nelson, the fleet is composed of the battleship Hood, the battle-cruiser Malaya, the battle-cruiser Renown, the cruisers York and Leander, the armoured cruiser Arethusa and Courageous and 21 destroyers.

The armada is temporarily flying the flag of Rear-Admiral W. G. Jackson, who joins the Home Fleet already in northern waters. The force is British and French.

Fifty-one warplanes, including 12 torpedo bombers are carried by the Furious and the Courageous.

These vessels comprise the hos-

Pretty Girly Stepped On Gas Following Hero

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22—Lawrence Tibbett got a traffic tag with an off-the-wall message from a pretty girl who was driving a highway patrol car, a San Francisco newspaper said yesterday. Tibbett's automobile sped from San Francisco at 40 miles an hour.

The girl, a young actress, Laurence Tibbett in which the two girls were riding. He stopped both cars.

The force intent on bombing the town of Elie on the Firth of Forth will be the first to bomb British Air Force machines based at neighboring aerodromes.

At present, the naval exercises will be in the experience gained by the air force in locating targets, and the naval force will be the naval personnel in returning to the aircraft carriers after considerable flight landing and take-off. The aircraft will carry no bombs.

Absence of bombs or equivalent loads is an attempt to make the mission justified in peace time and will not lessen the value of the exercises, as a form of partial training in the possibilities of aircraft action against ships undertaking a coastal raid.

PINEDO BURIED IN ROME WITH MILITARY HONORS

ROME, Sept. 22.—A full military funeral was accorded Thursday to General Francisco de Pinedo, Italian flier who was killed in New York at the start of an attempt to establish a new long-distance record.

The body arrived here by rail from Naples, where it was taken by steamer from America.

NO ELECTION NOW FOR ONTARIO

KENORA, Sept. 22.—Ontario voters will have another election at least. Premier George E. Clark, who called the election here last night, after full consideration, the government has come to the conclusion an immediate general election would not be safe.

"I will not say more here about the date of the election than I have said before," he said. "I told a large audience, 'and that is that it will come within five years from the last general election.'

On the same program is Tom Keene in "Crossfire."

It was noted that Pinedo had exchanged a speech on the "spills" and a perfect performance of the "Sunshine" song, playing as the added attraction on the program.

It is an adaptation of Dion Titheradge's well known novel, "Bill the Conqueror." Henry Ford, the famous American racing driver, will be seen at the Rialto.

Renee will be seen as Albert Bur- gess in "The Lightning Warrior," a surprise climax when the crime boat meets his end in a manner that heralds the most vivid adventure.

Heralded as a distinctly different picture, "The Man Who Won," the Pioneers Pictures' featuring Henry Ford, will be shown Saturday evening as the added attraction on the program.

It is an adaptation of Dion

Titheradge's well known novel,

"Bill the Conqueror." Henry

Speed, Miss Angel is a newcomer to the screen.

She is a Gaynor-like charm and personality. Norman Walker directed the picture.

Miss S. Swanson and Sam Livesey support the leading players.

CUBS TAKE LEAD IN SENIOR BALL SERIES

Rivals Ready To Start Junior Grid Campaign

KINSMEN PLAY EDMONTON A.C. SQUAD SUNDAY

Canadian Football Season Plans Grand Opening At Renfrew Park

Joe Pyke, that stylish pro at Prince Rupert golf club, set a new course record there yesterday afternoon with a 66 strokes. He had four for his golf card. Joe, who has been a member of the city open championship, was tuning up for the second half of the season which will be played over his home course Sunday . . . And he certainly looks like a great contender for the crown.

Caio jumped back into the lead in the inter-provincial baseball title series last night when they whipped Regina Nationals 3-2.

It was all the Canadians had in the first three championships. That's no cinch, though they look like winners right now . . . Big McLeod, who started the year in the city open championship, was tuning up for the second half of the season which will be played over his home course Sunday . . . And he certainly looks like a great contender for the crown.

All eyes will be centred on the start of the gridiron campaign here on the weekend at Edmonton Athletic Club meet. Kinsemens Sunday in the opening, while the other two teams battle . . . Incidentally, they'll stage their spectacle in the big Renfrew Park stadium this evening . . . Which should help to make the games all the more attractive from a spectator's viewpoint.

Edmonton's own team, young Vikings in the east end, Young Liberals and Patricia McKee's going to Calgary this morning for two games against the Alberta Girls play High River in Calgary for the Alberta junior baseball championship. The Vikings are a Foothills City team for the provincial softball crew . . .

Coach Alan Wilson, new Vikings grid coach is losing no time over getting his team ready for campus those days, putting his senior squad into the best shape possible for the opening game in Calgary, Almonton on October 7 . . . There are plenty of brilliant prospects in the Vikings team this year and they should be able to give Almonton a real argument for the title . . .

SUSPENSION CUT FOR REGINA ACE

SASKATOON, Sept. 22.—Suspension of Curt Kerr, former Regina Pats junior hockey star, barred from playing in the Western Canada Cup playdowns at Toronto last year, has been shortened to three games by the Western Hockey League, according to G. A. Jordan, Northern Governor of the Canadian Amateur Union, Saskatoon.

The suspension will enable Kerr to secure a playing certificate from Saskatchewan Amateur Hockey Association, which was issued by Mr. Jordan from President Frank Greenleaf of the CRA, revealed.

Cricket

The Stratford C.C. will be represented in the Ontario Senior exhibition at its gates at 2 p.m. sharp, Saturday, Sept. 26. The game will be played at 2 p.m. sharp, with the younger pair.

HOW TO STOP TIGER TANKS IS QUESTION

Team To Solve Hamilton Rugby Riddle Must Be Good

This is the line-up a Canadian Press series on prospects of eastern Canadian football teams.

HAMILTON, Ont., Sept. 23.—The unsolved mystery of how to stop Frank Turville and the roaring, rippling Tiger Tanks in front of him is still the bane of the east. The team that wins the title, though, may not be the one to solve the mystery haunts, despite any, but it's still there.

The team that solves the Hamilton riddle will have a good chance of winning the interprovincial football championship and the Canadian football title might as well.

The team that wins the title, though, will give a good account of themselves and stand a chance of winning.

Coach Eric Duggan, of the Edmonton Athletic Club entry, has made dates ever to try out for a Canadian football team in this city and a team of experienced players that are to be seen on the Kinsemens roster, the team that has been invited to a Foothills City team for the provincial softball crew . . .

Coach Billie Russell will send out Coach Billie Russell will send out the team to the Bengal link this fall that swept through the Big Four in 1932 with five victories and one loss. They cut down the champions of the intercollegiate union, the ORFU and the western conference, and won the championship for the third time in five years.

Turville, outstanding backfielder in the attack, is the attacking pivot and with him are such noted endrunners, kickers, punters and punt returners as Walter Parker, Eddie Wright, Don Gardner, Ray Bourne and Jimmie Hargrave. The team has a balanced rear division somewhere but Hughes will have to be shown before the season begins.

Gardner, Hamilton-born, University of Gettysburg player, a certain prospect, has been used part time at quarter, with Ken Willis and Holley Jones.

Ken Willis, a Princeton college graduate, is the coach.

SPRAGUE MISSING

Two figures in the great Bengal link, one of them Dave Vinten, the other, Fredrick Eley, gained more yards from scrimmage in 1932 than any other player in the history of football.

Art Tesford moved Ottawa in the off-season, leaving a gap that will be filled by a new arrival.

In Sprague's place will be George Thompson, a middle man who starred in his last three seasons with University of Western Ontario. Thompson, a fine blocker and plunger, is to get Tedford's job. Old Brian Timmins, a veteran, will work with the younger pair.

EATON'S EVEN GIRLS' SERIES

BY TOMMY GRAHAM

Ballying to the extent of one run to break a deadlock in the sixth inning, Lawrence Cunningham's Fairy Eaton girls evaded the semi-finalists in the Ontario Provincial baseball league when they came through with a 4-3 triumph over Almonton. The girls, who beat Eskimos, in the second game of the series played before a large crowd at the Eaton grounds, were the victors.

The third and final encounter will be played at the same date at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 29, and the winners will open a three-out-of-five series with Bert Thomas' Imperial patriots girls for the city title.

With the score deadlocked going into the ninth, the Fairies' Keeler classy short stop of the Eaton nine saved her team from defeat by a single error over the home plate with the winning run.

After blasting a hard grounder to Vint in which she managed to reach first base, Mayde Cunningham's Keeler classy short stop of the Eaton nine saved her team from defeat by a single error over the home plate with the winning run.

The game was featured by a duel between Margaret Cunningham and Pat Vint. Cunningham's performance in holding the Eskimos at bay was excellent, and Vint was a feature. Vint's performance was good enough to win any game but her bad mades failed to connect for hits.
